

Church of Virginia.

Queen street.

Mr. Lawrence Edwin Remington, of this city, and Miss Eva Earlena Smyth, monial session, which will be followed of Alexandria, formerly of Culpeper, Va... daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Smyth, were married in Washington Saturday. Sylvania averue side of the large banThey are spending their honeymon in Florida, and will return home Monday.

Miss Louise Ashton, of Ballston, Alexaged for the occasion. County, is the guest of Misses Elizabeth and Rebecca Kite, South Pitt

Miss Alice Wedgewood, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. William May. Miss Anne Hopkins, of Onocoke, Va.,

visiting Mrs. Edgar Carpenter. Miss Madeline Byrne entertained the of which she is a ber, at an informal dinner Satur-Members present were Misses Nora Baggett, Eva Crilly, Mary Ewald, Mildred Heilmeth, Pauline Hellmuth, Lillian Hill. Helen Nugent, Ellen Patterson, and Eatherine Westcott, of Birmingham, temples, have accepted invitations and Ala., are the guests of Mrs. Westcott's will be present.

The Arab patrol of Almas, under the Mrs. Charles Green, of Laurel, Del., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper, Braddock Heights. Miss Bertha Gray Robinson and Mr. Robert Newton Robinson, of Orange were week-end guests of their isin, Mrs. M. C. C. Peyton.

Mrs. Overton Price, of the Grange, war Biltmore, N. C., is the guest of Mrs. Overton Westfeldt, at her home in Rosein Stafford County, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Laycock, Masare guests of Mrs. Laycock's brother-inlaw and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M.

Mrs. Joel J. Barnett, of Baltimore, is guest of her brother-in-law and sis-Mrs. Robert L. Payne, Rosemont.

LAUREL.

Miss Masie Jones, of Ellicott City, is the guest of Mrs. Charles H. Stanley. Miss Louise Mattingly, of Washington is the guest of Mrs. James E. Bradley. James Bradley entertained a few friends at cards Thursday evening.

Mr. Will Waters, of Washington, was guest Thursday of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. John D. Cronnillier and daughter susmess, and expect to stay some weeks Margery Middleton, of Washingten, was the guest this week of Mrs.

Masonic Affairs.

4-Washington Centennial, No.

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS November 3-La Favette, No. 5, P. and M. E.; Vashington Naval, No. 6. November 4-Columbia, No. 1; Brightwood, No. 9, ovember 5-School of instruction, KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. Nosmiber 2-Orient, No. 5.

Nosmiber 4-Potomar, No. 5.
Nosmiber 6-Potomar, No. 5.
Nosmiber 6-Potomar, No. 2.
NOSENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.
NOSMIBER OF MYSTIC SHRINE.

er 5-Almaa Tempie, ceremonial, EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS, commber 2-Rich, No. 1. ocember 5-Migah, No. 8. ocember 4-Arrue, No. 10. ocember 5-Kather, No. 2. ocember 6-Martha, No. 4.

Shriners to Entertain Imperial Potentate of North America.

In honor of the official visit of the Imperial Potentate, Arabic Order No-bles of the Mystic Shrine, Dr. Frederick R. Smith, of Rochester, N. Y., to Almas on Thursday evening of this week, the nobility of the Almas has decided to make the visit of Dr. Smith a memorial in the annals of Shrinedom in this city. It is expected that the big-gest gathering of Shriners Washington has seen will assemble on the top floor of the New Willard on Thursday even-ing for the purposes of initiation and ex-tending a warm and heartfelt welcome to the imperial potentate and those who Ladies' Capital Hat Shop 508 Eleventh St. N. W.

Ladies: Do not throw away your old velvet or dush hats; but bring them to us. We re-block old relet and phush hats into any wet and prime hats into any atjie desired-make them look like new. We also re-cover velvet and plush hats on any style frame. Beaver, felt, and seloum style. We carry the largest buckram. Ricenet Leno and

MATTRESSES o renovate and remake $1.75 equal to new for only $1.75 equal to new for only $1.00 oy none but expert work as we own one but expert workmen. EAGLE BEDDING COMPANY

McKenny have gone to El Paso, Tex. where they will visit relatives. Afterwards they will visit the exposition.

Mr. Charles Kramer has returned after a visit to relatives outside of Washington with whom he spent three weeks.

Mr. William Campbell and Rev. Dr. Almas residing in Washington. New and striking features are promised for the ceremonial, which is outlined in the circulars sent out recently to all members of the nobility of work being done in a highly complimantary manner by the line official visit to the Capital City.

Through he untiring efforts of Illustrious Potentate James T. Gibbs, complimantary manner by the line official visit to relative submitted by the month in making arrangements for the gazilyear, reports were submitted by the sarious committees, which were very satisfactory. The interest manifested during its outlined in the circulars sent out recently to all members of the nobility of Moral Lee Allison have neturned from Lynchburg, Va., where they attended a meeting of the ceremonial session of Thursday night, and a general rejoicing of vast proportion in this being the work being done in a highly complimantary manner by the line official visit to the Capital City.

Through he untiring efforts of Illustration.

This being the last meeting of the past month in making arrangements for the past factory. The interest manifested during the year by the entire membership has complimentary manner by the line official visit to the Capital City.

Through he untiring efforts of Illustration.

After whom the exposition.

After whom the exposition.

After whom the circulars are not out recently to all members of the nobility of the year by the entire membership has factory. The interest manifested during the year by the entire membership has factory.

Through he untiring efforts of Illustration.

After whom the exposition.

After whom the exposition of the past was a promised for the past are promised for the past year, reports were advanced for the official visit to the Capital City.

Through he unti

od of the Presbyterian and a general rejoicing of vast propor-tions is looked for, growing out of the Church of Virginia.

Master Theodore Beach entertained in honor of his twelfth birthday Thursday evening at the home of his parents, 525 ple fun will be fast and furious, and engaged for the occasion.

Every effort has been made to make this a crowning event in the history of the nobility of Almas Temple, and a fitting climax to the close of Potentate Fidelity Chapter Receives Grand Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Byrne and shrine. In addition to Dr. Smith, who counce the engagement of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Byrne an-shrine. In addition to Dr. Smith, who nounce the engagement of their daughter, is looked upon as one of the great lights in masonry and a very distinguished Grand Chapter, O. E. S., to Fidelity wedding will take place November 25. imperial party several members of the official divan.

Past Imperial Potentates George L. history of the order. Worthy Matron

Street, of Richmond, Va.; William W. Irwin, of Wheeling, W. Va.; William J. Cunningham, of Baltimore, Md.; Poten-tates William G. Speed, of Boumi Temple; G. Jeter Jones, of Acca Temple, Richmond. Va.; Peter Gaughell, of Crescent Hil. Helen Nugent, Ellen Patterson, and Temple, Trenton, N. J.; Charles T. Taylary Quinn.

Mrs. Samuel H. Westcott and little Miss and many past potentates of out of town command of Capt, Robey, has been work-ing day and night for this ceremonial session, and throughout the entire tab-leau of Almas Temple every effort is being put forth to make the coming onial session one long to be membered in the Shrine annals of this nterested in the coming ceremonial session and who have given a very great deal of time in the preparation of the entertainment of Thursday night are Past Potentates Roe Fulkerson, Jacobus turned home after spending three weeks S. Jones, Carter B. Keene, and Nobles Stafford County, Va.

It and Mrs. George W. Laycock, MasGeorge W. Laycock, Jr., and little st Louise Laycock, of Hamilton, Va., guests of Mrs. Laycock's brother-inguests of Mrs. Laycock's brother-inparticular mention should be made of Noble I. L. Goldheim, who will have charge of the stage on the occasion and will be general director of the entertainment, which gives promise of a very high and very instructive character. The musical features of the evening will be especially noteworthy, being under the direction of Walter L. Hum-phrey and assisted by Oscar F. Com-stock, Charles E. Myers, John F. M. Bowie, and J. Henry Kaiser.

Takoma Chapter. O. E. S., Holds

Record Visitation. In the presence of the largest gather-A supper and fair for the benefit of ing in the history of Takoma Chapter, the Laurel Free Library was held Tues-livel of the Eastern Star, the visday evening at the Masonic Hall. ern Star occurred Friday evening, October 22. As the Grand Officers entered the chapter room the choir from Ruth Chap-ter, No. 1. rendered a selection. The open-ing address of the evening was made by Mrs. Jesse W. Cowles, grand matron, followed by remarks by Charles W. Molster, grand patron After a solo by Charles W. Roberts, of Electa Chapter. No. 2. accompanied by Miss Mildred Langley. Past Worthy Patron Harvey ster, grand patron After a solo by Charles W. Roberts, of Electa Chapter, No. 12, accompanied by Miss Mildred Langley. Past Worthy Patron Harvey S. Knight, in a brief address, presented the grand matron with a handsome handpainted china tea set. This ceremony was followed by a recitation by Mrs. Love, of Areme Chapter, No. 12, Mrs. Jeasie W. Coles, grand first of fast week, but an employe of the terminal station came to its rescue won't need any outside talent. Secure week included the following: Stansbury Lodge, No. 24, F. A. A. M., last Monday night, at Brightwood, D. C., where the painted china tea set. This ceremony was followed by a recitation by Mrs. Love, of Areme Chapter, No. 12, Mrs. Jeasie W. Coles, grand first of fast week, but an employe of the terminal station came to its rescue won't need any outside talent. Secure week included the following: Stansbury Lodge, No. 24, F. A. A. M., last Monday night, at Brightwood, D. C., where the matron and past matron of Cathedral dress by Rev. Walter F. Smith, on his fifty-first anniversary of the dedication presentation to the grand patron of a hand-namined cake.

C. W. Dickens of a phand-namined cake. C. W. Dickens of a hand-painted cake plate. In each instance the recipients responded in an appropriate manner.

Mrs. Neille W. Plumbley, of Naomi Chapter, No. 2, rendered a solo, followed by a recitation by Mrs. Charles W. Mol-ster, past matron of Brookind Chapter, No. 11. Mrs. Plumbley was accompanied by Past Worthy Matron Mrs. Annie W. Knight. Miss Clara Ball, of Naomi Chap-ter, No. 3, mother of Takoma Chapter, was present and made a brief address. Regrets were expressed on behalf of J. J. Faber, father of the chapter, who was out of the jurisdiction and unable to be present. Every chapter in this jurisdic-tion was represented and assisted in mak-ing the event the most notable since the chapter was organized. chapter was organized.

Mrs. P. W. Favorite, worthy matron, and J. B. Derrick, worthy patron, welcomed the guests. The program of the evening was arranged by Mrs. J. J. Faber and Miss. and Miss Mildred Langley. The decora-tions consisted of autumn leaves, cut flowers, and American flags, and proved one of the features of the evening's en-tertainment. The affair was attended by the largest number of past grand ma-trons and patrons in the history of the Matrons and Patrons of 1910 Hold Reunion. The fifteenth reunion of the 1910 Marchard Patrons' Association was held are favorites of the lodge. Association was held are favorites of the lodge.

trons and Patrons' Association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Henry. 19 T street northwest, on Satur-day evening. October 24. The entertainment committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Henry. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mayberry, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson, Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Bush, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sebastian. The secretary reported that the board of directors of reported that the board of directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home had assigned a room to the association. After a business session the following program wa rendered: Vocal duet, Mrs. Neille Plumley and Mr. M. J. Fillius; readings, Miss Corinne Hay; vocal solo, James D. Rowen. The committee presented Mrs. Belle Hampton with a pair of silver sugar tongs. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Henry for opening their home to the association; also a vote of home to the association; also a vote of thanks to the committee for its labors and enjoyable entertainment. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and lilles. Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Mayand liles. Mrs. Bush and Mrs. May-berry presided at the punch bowl. A sumptuous banquet was theroughly en-joyed by all. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Frey, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mayberry, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fillius, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Rowen, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Rowen, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Plumley, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Poynton, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cheeseman, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Henry, Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Bush, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hampton, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Galloway, Mrs. Joseph Phillips, Mr. Everett Phillips, Miss Corinne Hay, and Mrs. Hay.

Friendship Chapter, O. E. S., Confers Degrees.

Friendship Chapter, O. E. S., beld its regular meeting leat Tuesday. Degrees were conferred on four candiof the December ladies' and children's night entertainment, is busy with the details of that event and has announced the following subcommittees: Vice chairman, E. W. Libbey; tickets. Castleman P. Boss; souvenirs, Jack Shulman; flowers, F. H. Kramer; refreshments, Theodore Picard; medical. Dr. Frederick Yates; reception, Monarch P. B. Pullman and Past Monarch Edward S. Schmid, J. W. Collina, and R. B. Dickey; floor, Charles A. Stevens; music, band, Samuel F. Shreve and Julius Kamper; orchestra, Jacque Heidenheimer; decerations, P. W. Nicholson, and Myer Hanlein.

Advices from Grand Monarch E. L. Volgenau are to the effect that Mahadi Grotto has been organised at Elkhart, being made in the preparations for the Supreme Council convention in Buffalo next June. It is simed to make this the biggest event in grotto history. Com-mittees will soon be announced by Mon-srch Puliman in connection with the participation of Kallipolis Grotto in the reputation for the goodfellowship spirit, the chapter has made commendable strides in its membership. During recess the infant daughter of convention. the worthy patron, Fred Robey, was christened by Rev, Edgar C. Powers, of the Elbrook Methodist Church, and a member of Brookland Chapter. The cers-In a recent communication Grand Sec in a recent communication Grand sec-retary Sidney D. Smith says: "Cades-sia Grotto has been organized at Fort Wayne. Ind. I think I can safely say you can look for a new one about every mony was very much enjoyed by all two weeks."

two weeks.

Henry Pears, grand keeper of the archives, advises that Al Sirst Grotto, of Cleveland, Ohio, on October 7 had a class of ninety-seven. Past Grand Mon-Mrs. Rosa B. Decker, in charge of the Mrs. Rosa B. Decker, in charge of the refreshments, entertained those present for a social hour in the banquet hall. The chapter drill team will visit Ruth Chapter, No. 7, at Hyattcsville, Md., Monday, November 2, at 8 p. m., to confer the floral degree and drill. Mrs. Nellie Fletcher and Mrs. Laura Decker, who have been sick for some time, are both arch George Edward Hatch and Men-arch Heroid M. Harter, of Toledo, were present on this occasion.

Officers of Eastern Star.

Etta Larkin strayed from the conven-tional paths in her address of welcome conductress, on behalf of the chapter, presented Grand Patron Charles E. Moleresting and helpful talks.

and Mrs. Emma McIndoo.

Fidelity Chapter was the recipient of trons of 1909,

Washington Centennial Lodge to Confer F. C. Degree.

Washington Centennial Lodge at its stated communication next Wednesday evening at 7:39 o'clock will confer the F. C. degree on five candidates, the junior warden, James S. McCarthy, pre-junior warden, James S. McCarthy, presiding.

Worshipful Master Leonard P. Steuart extended an invitation to Kallipolis Grotto to visit the lodge at its special communication, November 20 at 6 o'clock, and entertain with its glee club and band in honor of the degree team of Washington centennial. At this communication the M. M. degree will be conferred on one candidate. At 3 o'clock a buffet supper will be served, which will be followed by an entertainment by the a outer supper will be served, which will be followed by an entertainment by the Kallipolis fun-making outfit. A commit-tee, headed by Edward S. Schmid is at work on plans for the evening. Senior Warden Paul E. Lezh is being heartily congratulated on the arrival of a young lady (Miss Nancy Lesh) at his home, who, from all appearances, proposes to make her residence there permanently. The members of Washington Centennial are almost as happy over the arrival of Miss Nancy as Mr. Lesh him-

"Prophets" Planning Big Ceremonial.

Kallipolis Grotto, No. 15, M. O. V. P. E. R., is preparing for its fall and win-was disposed of.

Monarch P. R. Pullman announces a change of date for the fall ceremonial from November 19, as originally planned, to November 23, at Odd Fellows' Hall.

This will be the last ceremonial this year of candidates, after which the evening will be given over to a unique musical entertainment. Prophet Samuel F. Shreve, dispenser of mirth and joility.

has a few fun-provoking stunts up his sleeve which are calculated to impress upon the candidates the benefit of banishing dull care and cause them to look upon the bright side of life.

Prof. Julius Kamper is rehearsing the band for this event, and Prophet Charles A. Stevens, leader of the Giee Club, is drilling his singers and comedians for an original musical skit of his own com-position, the characters of which will represent several nationalities. The skit will be in the nature of a farce comedy.

liberally interspersed with song and monologue. Prophet Jacque Heidenheimer is busy arranging the musical score, and a series of rehearsals are now under

It is expected that the famous minute it is expected that the famous minute men, all members of the grotto, will have a prominent part in the skit. Kallipelis Grotto Band entertained Stansbury Lodgs, No. 24, F. A. A. M., at Brightwood Monday evening, the oc-casion being the annual visitation of the officers of the Grand Lodge.

Past Master John H. Shreve, chairman and Monarch Pullman aims to make one of the most enjoyable and novel of his administration. The "short form" initiation will be worked on a large class activities. At a business meeting neld Thursday evening at Chamber of Long I Grotto, No. 44, of Brooklyn, N Y. gave a band concert and dance on October la, which was well patronized by the local and near-by grottoes. A ceremonial session of this grotto is also announced for October 31. Monarch announced for October 31. Monarch Alexander W. Waters announces that "the master of revels and imps have prepared an especial Halloween tion for the candidates, and prises for the fellow who thinks he can prises for the fellow who thinks he can silp in easy." Long I Grotto will also give a ladies' night on December 10." Monarch S. F. Izard, of Cashmere Grotto, of Elmirs, N. Y., in his call for a ceremonial on November 3, states: "We are bombarded on every side by a bunch of barbarians from Missouri who are demanding that we show them' the essence of good fellowship that flows from the realms of Cashmere." Grand Monof the most interesting and unique in the history of the order. Worthy Matron Etta Larkin strayed from the convenand the responses from the grand matron and grand patron were happy, it being evident that they were proud of their "child" (Fidelity Chapter). Associate Matron Mrs. Stella Knapp presented to Grand Matron Jessie W. Cow's, on behalf of the chapter, an exquisite hand-painted plaque, the product of one of the members of Fidelity, Mrs. Lyda I. Riley, the realms of Cashmere." arch Ernest L. Volgenau will be present at this ceremonial.

Zemzem Grotto, of Jersey City, N. J., announces a public concert and recep-tion by the Zemzem Grotto Band on Dester with a beautifully engraved loving cup. The cermonies of presentation were unique and impressive, one of the consion on December 28.

Islam Grotto, No. 35, of Pittsburgh, cluding features being the recitation by Rev. Clarence E. Wise of a poem com-posed by himself for the occasion. The program prepared by the entertainment committee for the evening con-Lebanon Lodge to Confer M. M. sited of Fidelity talent, among those par-Degree.

Pa., held a largely attended ceremonial on October 3

sited of Fidelity talent, among those par-ticipating being Miss Bessie Harrison and Mrs. Emily Fitcher, both of whom entertflined with besutiful solos, and Mrs. Nellie N. Brinkley with interesting read-ings. Past Most Worthy Grand Patron Cabell Williamson, Right Most Worthy Grand Treasurer Mrs. La Monde, and Past Grand Matron Mrs. Smith gave in-teresting and helpful talks. Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, F. A. A. M., will onfer the M. M. degree at its next stated communication, November 6. At the con-fusion of the degree refreshments will served by the ladies of the lodge Worshipful Master Charles D. Shackel-ford has announced that the lodge will have a "memorial night" on the evening of the grand visitation, the grand officers using the short form this additional articles of paraphernalia from Alton P. Hastings, patron: Mrs. Emily Fletcher, Mrs. Mabel E. Tyree, Miss An-Grand Secretary Johnston neca C. Johnson, Miss Mabel E. Duchay, Home to Vote.

Mrs. Proctor Entertains Past Ma-Last Wednesday Mrs. A. Maud Proc-tor, secretary of William F. Hunt Chapter, No. 16, O. E. S., entertained at a Halloween luncheon at her home in Halloween luncheon at her home in Brightwood, the past matrons of 1900.

Mrs. Proctor war assisted by her niece, Miss Mamie E. Youse, of Mc-kinley Chapter, Cumberland, Md., and a talented pianist, who, following the The visitations for this week will be as follows: Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 31, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on uncheon, played several selections. The iuncheon, played several selections. The decorations and favors for the occasion were in keeping with the season. Those present and the chapters represented were Mrs. Mary Lamond White, past matron, Ruth Chapter, No. 1: Mrs. Helen E. Roberts, past matron. Electa Chapter, No. 2: Mrs. Bertha tron, Naomi Chapter, No. 3; Mrs. Be

Women's and Misses' Outergarments and Millinery

Exceptional Suits at $25

The same words used to describe fine suits apply unfortunately to inferior garments as well. So it is better to see for yourself and not be influenced by mere words that may mean much, but often act as a cloak for inferiority. Our $25 Suits need few words-they sell themselves as soon as you see them.

The materials are the best ever made up into suits at this price-and you'll be surprised at the difference between them and many others exploited as "wonderful bargains." Why pay $25 for something inferior when we give

The Maximum Value at the Minimum Price SHORT AND LONG COAT MODELS Trimmed in Velvet, Fur, and Pomeraine, $25.

$6.75 for Coats Worth Up to $12.50

College, Balmacaan, Sport, and Rain Coats. Novelty Cloths, Fancy Mixtures, and plain fabrics in stylish models.

$10 for Dresses Worth $13.50 and $15

Serge Dresses and serge combined with satin. New models in the latest effects; black, navy, dark green and brown-excellent values at regular price. Special.....

$2.95 for Blouses Worth $5 to $10

Satin Blouse and Basque effects of crepe de chine, taffeta; some of chiffon, trimmed with lace and chiffon combinations. Some are all chiffon, charmettse or lace. High and low neck, long and short sleeves. Special...

New Lingerie Waists, $1.95

Flake crepe, novelty voile, batiste Waists trimmed in lace, organdie, and P. K.; also some new vest effects with high neck and pleated collars.....

$5 for Trimmed Hats Worth $7.50 to $15

These are a group of hats that have been specially trimmed to acquaint you with the excellent values to be found in this shop

$2.50 for Untrimmed Velvet Hats Worth $6, $6.50 and $7.50

Colored velvet and some black silk velvet untrimmed shapes. All this season's Arvine W. Johnson, the grand secretary of York Rite Masonic bodies, of the District of Columbia, left last Friday for his home in Medina, Ohio, where he will cast his ballot in the regular election. Grand Secretary Johnston will return November 4.

Wisitations Announced For This Week.

The visitations for this week will be as follows: Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 23, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. King Solomon Lodge, No. 21, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, F. A. A. M., on Monday night; M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 2 two tenor solos by Charles P. Meyers, of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, their nonor once every year,

King Solomon Lodge, No. 31, F. A. A. and proceed to plan the biggest and best raised by William B. Cushing Camp. No. meeting that ever has been held under the auspices of your camp. A supper for the veterans served by the auxiliary be-fore the program would insure the pres-ence of many more than otherwise. Fellow the supper by one or two whort, griep yard by the strong breeze blowing the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Commander-in-Chief Charles F. Sher
Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Commander-in-Chief Charles F. Sher
Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

Lake and then give the Boys of 'R' a first of last week, but an employe of won't need any outside talent. Secure and a number of members of William the use of autos for such as are leeble.

B. Cushing Camp were notified. They but get them there and take them home

20. Division of Maryland, at the Union Station on the previous Saturday after-noon with solemn and appropriate exer-

THE STORE THAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD VISIT

Every Woman Who Plaiting, Buttons Would Dress Well Needs a DRESS FORM

If her gowns are fashionable-dressmaker-made or ready-made-she will need a form to see how they look ON.

If the dresses are made at home, whether by the home sewer for herself or others, or by a dressmaker "by-the-day," fitting, trimming, draping are accomplished more quickly and easily on a dress form and at a saving of time and energy to both fitter and fitted.

If there's remodeling or making over to be done, whether much or little, a form makes it easy.

A Dress Form Is a Sewing Room Ritepose Model $3.00 Necessity.

Our Stock Consists of a Complete Assortment.

Nonadjustable Models and Adjustable Models.

Prices from $3.00 to $18.00 Invaluable for a woman who would dress well—that means every woman.

Hemstitching

Accordion and Side, Box and Sun Plaiting In All Styles and Designs

HEMSTITCHING

The Latest Designs in Plain and Fancy Hemstitching and Peco Edging.

Buttons Made to Otder in All Styles.

====WE CARRY=

The Ladies' Home Journal and May Manton Patterns and a Complete Line of Home Sewers' Notions.

Corner Eighth and E Streets Northwest Sole Agent for New Home Sewing Machine and Pneumatic Dress Forms.